

How To: Access Ed-Fi Source Code and Issue Tracking Systems

You must be a licensee of Ed-Fi Technology with a login to GitHub and permission to access the Ed-Fi Issue Tracker system in order to download and contribute to the Ed-Fi Implementation Suite technology components.

1. If you are not a licensee, licensing information is available here.
2. If you are already a licensee (or are working for a licensee) and need to request access to issue tracking and source code, you can request access here.
3. To read and contribute to the Ed-Fi Issue Tracker, you can log in here.
4. To access the Ed-Fi private source code repositories, log into GitHub here prior to accessing the repository links. Note: GitHub will return a 404 "Page Not Found" error if you are not logged in.

Related Articles

- How To: Submit an Issue
- How To: Access Ed-Fi Source Code and Issue Tracking Systems
- How To: Submit a Feature Request
- How To: Set Up Your Development Environment