

Early Childhood Domain: State-Led Early Learning Data Management

Thursday, April 7, 2022

10:30 AM - 11:45 AM	Many states are working towards incorporating early childhood and learning data to support inbound students as they transfer into their elementary school programs. This session will explore what is being done today within the Early Childhood Domain, experiences to date from state-lead work and where this domain will go in the future to support the related use cases.
